JAK Creative Design wins Davey Award for promotional work

Darien, Ill. (Feb. 1, 2017) — JAK Creative Design, a marketing and design agency based in the western suburbs of Chicago, has received a 2016 Silver Davey Award for its promotional design work.

The handmade winning piece features a JAK-branded beer tap handle and an accompanying menu that showcases the agency's creative services.

"The great thing about this project is that it came out of a friendly internal competition that involved the whole team," JAK President and Owner Jill Kerrigan said. "Everyone rose to the challenge, and we ended up with a creative, high-impact piece."

The Davey Awards (daveyawards.com), created to recognize outstanding creative design by small agencies worldwide, are administered by the Academy of Interactive and Visual Arts. Nearly 4,000 entries were considered for the 2016 edition, according to the AIVA.

Kerrigan is affiliated with the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO), and she is certified through the Women's Business Enterprise National Council (WBENC) and the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA). In 2016, Kerrigan completed the Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses program.

This Davey Awards honor adds to JAK's portfolio of award-winning work. In the past year, the agency also has won two Silver awards from design journal Graphis and two Communicator Awards. Prior design accolades include four Davey Awards and two W3 Awards, among others.
